One Simmons Planning Principles:

- Be a catalyst for the integration of teaching and research, student life, and overall health and wellness
- Enhance interactions between faculty and students
- Integrate academic and student life
- Increase connectivity, safety, and health and wellness for students
- Evoke a sense of identity within each new college
- Prioritize student space
- Reuse existing built conditions efficiently
- Provide state-of-the-art athletics, dining, science and residences to support Simmons' mission and to attract and retain talent
